

Summary

«Paradigm thinking in contemporary organisation studies»

(Ed. by Massimiliano Monaci and John Hassard)

Saggi

M. MONACI - J. HASSARD

Introduction: The paradigm concept as a resource for knowledge development and critical reflection in organisation studies p. 3

O. RATLE

Ambiguity and polysemy as rhetorical resources in knowledge disputes:
The struggle over the interpretation of Kuhn in organisation studies » 17

L. ROMANI - H. PRIMECZ

Promoting and demystifying paradigm interplay: Reflexive practices on a study of Turkish mobile professionals » 31

N.V. JACKSON

Paradigm incommensurability: The corpse that refuses to die » 45

R. CHIA

Before and beyond paradigms in organisation studies:
Back to the «rough ground» » 57

C. CASLER - P. DU GAY

Stances, Paradigms, Personae » 69

M. KELEMEN - N. RUMENS

Re-asserting paradigm plurality: Pragmatism and co-production in management and organisation studies » 81

D. PIERIDES - S. CLEGG

Sociology of organisation, honourable and deferential » 93

M. PARKER

Paradigms, maps and destinations » 105